Your Home Away From Home....in the Heart of Historic Rome!

Are you coming to study at one of the Pontifical Universities, Athenaea or Institutes in Rome, or will you be continuing your studies at one during the 2009-2010 academic year? Are you thinking of where you want to stay during this period? Why not consider joining the student community at the Lay Centre!

The Lay Centre offers a welcoming place in which to live and study in Rome:

+ A comfortable, competitively priced single or double room with telephone & internet access

+ Three daily meals & a student kitchen area

+ Laundry facilities

+ Daily opportunities for liturgical prayer

The Lay Centre provides an active community life that includes:

+ opportunities for spiritual, human and professional formation

+ an environment that promotes study and fosters the intellectual life

+ practical support while you are away from home

+ regularly scheduled cultural activities

+ student discounts available at a local fitness centre

+ experiences of multi-cultural, ecumenical and interreligious interaction

Are YOU interested in becoming part of our vibrant community?
